

SUKKOT

For this program, your chapter builds a sukkah – a small, temporary booth or hut – at your house and hosts an event in it. You can also partner with another organization on campus – Hillel, Chabad, etc. – to build your sukkah and host an event.

Sukkot, a Hebrew word meaning "booths" or "huts," refers to the Jewish festival of giving thanks for the fall harvest and commemorates the 40 years of Jewish wandering in the desert after the giving of the Torah atop Mount Sinai. This seven-day holiday calls for Jews to erect a sukkah.

SHABBAT ACROSS AEP

A product of the 2011 Hineni Jewish Identity Enrichment Conference, Shabbat Across AEP has grown to be one of our largest programs.

Chapters worldwide give substance to our international brotherhood by simultaneously hosting a Shabbat dinner the Friday before or following our Founders Day – November 7. This can be the traditional chicken, mashed potatoes and green beans meal, or your chapter can put its own twist on it!

TU B'SHVAT SEDER

Our newest annual program gathers brothers to celebrate the New Year for the trees. Hang out, eat fresh fruits and enjoy a Seder with your Brothers.

Those who partake in a Tu B'Shvat Seder will eat at least 15 different types of fruits and vegetables. It is also customary to include the seven species mentioned in the Torah: wheat, barley, grapes, figs, pomegranates, olives and dates.

ANNUAL JEWISH PROGRAMMING OVERVIEW

Alpha Epsilon Pi doesn't just say we are a Jewish fraternity – we show it. These programs are a part of what gives AEΠ its global presence on all of our campuses. AEΠ's International Headquarters is able to provide assistance with all of these programs, and none of the monetary support counts against your semester grant limit.

Sukkot: Oct. 12 - 22

Shabbat Across AEΠ: Nov. 1 and 8

Tu B'shvat Seder: Jan. 28 - Feb. 17

Passover Seder: April 7 - 18

We Walk To Remember: Month of April
(Yom HaShoah: April 21)

WE WALK TO REMEMBER

Held in congruence with B'nai B'rith International, We Walk to Remember (WW2R) is AEII's oldest annual program – first held at NYU in 2006.

AEII Brothers, along with other members of their communities, dress in black and hold silent processions through campus as a way to honor those who were killed in the Holocaust.

This is one of the most important programs AEII hosts as there are very few Holocaust survivors left, and we do not want their stories to disappear. As long as WW2R continues on college campuses around the world, no one will ever forget the horrors of the Holocaust.

We Remember.

PASSOVER

Passover is a time for families to gather around the Seder table, eat matzah and bitter herbs, drink wine and retell the story of the Exodus from Egypt. On college campuses around the world, AEPH aims to serve as a home-away-from-home for men as they navigate their college career.

For those who are not able to go home, your chapter can host a Passover Seder to further make AEPH that home-away-from-home.

LETTER-WRITING CAMPAIGNS

A letter-writing campaign engages chapter members by sending out letters to family and friends in each Brother's respective communities to explain your philanthropic endeavors, introduce your event and show them where they can go to learn more and donate.

Contact Director of Jewish Enrichment and Education Moshe Lencer at mlencer@aepi.org or (317) 876-1913 for any questions about the process.

How do we do a letter-writing campaign?

- Collect a list of names and addresses from your Brothers.
- Ask for 10 addresses from each Brother for an adequate letter-writing campaign.
- Make sure the addresses are in an Excel document in the same format as the Address List Template that is available on Openbook under the “documents” tab.
- Write the letter. A sample letter is available on Openbook under the “documents” tab.
- Send the two documents to mlencer@aepi.org & IHQ will take care of the rest.

How will people make a tax-deductible donation to the Repair The World Fund?
